

Share Your Route 66 Story

Marketing Resources

The National Trust for Historic Preservation recently launched the Preserve Route 66: Share Your Story campaign to collect stories about the people and places that make America’s “Mother Road” so special. This initiative aims to gather 2,026 public submissions in time for Route 66’s centennial in 2026, and will be used to create an interactive online map of the quirky roadside attractions, beloved small businesses, family histories, and personal memories that collectively help tell a more complete story of this iconic highway.

Below are social media, newsletter, and email examples for you to use to encourage your constituents, members, partners, and allies to submit their Route 66 stories, and help us tell the full American story.
